Onsurity and Startupwala join hands to provide affordable employee health benefits for SMEs and start-ups

Bengaluru, 2022: Onsurity, India's first tech-enabled employee healthcare platform for emerging businesses has entered into a partnership with Startupwala, India's best Start-up centric legal services company. With this partnership, Onsurity intends to capture a wide range of Indian start-ups and founders.

With healthcare coming to the ultimate aid for all during the harshest situations, Onsurity's employee healthcare platform makes it a point to offer outstanding and affordable healthcare facilities to SMEs and start-ups. With a unique monthly healthcare membership with instant purchase, a healthcare card model, and an unmatched, dedicated claims support team, Onsurity has maintained its pristine services to all its clients.

On the partnership, Yogesh Agarwal, Founder & CEO, Onsurity said, "Providing healthcare to employees that is reliable and affordable is what Onsurity is all about. We have covered more than 100 start-ups under this association with Startupwala and going forward we are aiming to reach a landmark of capturing more than 500 start-ups successfully under our belt. With this step, we will be empowering more start-ups and SMEs to widen their avenues in availing health benefits for their employees and families".

"Our whole brand is built on encouraging and empowering start-ups to grow and establish themselves legally and now with Onsurity onboard, our messaging is layered with an important element which had seldomly been addressed by smaller businesses. Through this association, we hope that all the facets of employee benefits are prioritized and looked after", commented, XXX, Founder, Startupwala.

Onsurity is working towards providing economically viable healthcare benefits to all employees of emerging businesses across all platforms and has made remarkable strides to reach its goals.
